

Programme

Thursday, 8th June 2023

- 14:00 Conference Opening: Welcome and Greetings
- 14:15 Introduction to the Topic of the Conference
- 14:45 Session I: The Context and Experiences of the Reformation in Central and Southeastern Europe
(Chair: Ulrich A. Wien)
- Zoltán Csepregi (Budapest): Eine Hagiographie ohne Scheiterhaufen? Der gewundene Weg der evangelischen Martyrologie in Ungarn des 16.-18. Jahrhunderts
- 15:45 Coffee Break
- 16:00 Zsombor Tóth (Budapest): East of Eden: Understanding Reformation(s) in Eastern and Central Europe – Methodological Considerations
- Sándor Papp (Szeged): Das Osmanische Reich: ein tolerantes Gemeinwesen? / Tolerance revisited? The Ottoman Policies
- 18:00 Reception

Friday, 9th June 2023

- 9:00 Session II: Transcultural / Transconfessional Developments and Encounters in the 16th and 17th Centuries – Part One
(Chair: Angela Ilić)
- Monika Bizoňová (Prešov): The Spread of the Reformation on the Periphery of the Kingdom of Hungary – the Spiš / Zips / Szepes Region
- Karl W. Schwarz (Bratislava, Vienna): „der religions halben maß und ordnung“: Kirchenordnung im 16. Jahrhundert - bei Primus Truber und Johannes Mathesius
- 10:30 Coffee Break

- 11:00 Réka Újlaki-Nagy (Budapest): On the Border of Christianity and Judaism. Transylvanian Sabbatarianism
- Edit Szegedi (Cluj-Napoca): Die Grenzen der konfessionellen Abgrenzung im Siebenbürgen des 17. Jahrhunderts
- 12:30 Lunch Break
- 14:00 Session III: Transcultural / Transconfessional Developments and Encounters in the 16th and 17th Centuries – Part Two
(Chair: Zsombor Tóth)
- Péter Kónya (Prešov): Helvetische Konfession. Wie eine ungewünschte Reformationsrichtung in den königlichen Freistädten zur Formierung der interkonfessionellen Grenze in Ober-Ungarn im 16. – 17. Jahrhundert beitrug
- Ingrid Papp (Budapest): The Interaction of Cultures in the Kingdom of Hungary in the Seventeenth-Century
- 15:30 Coffee Break
- 15:45 Annamária Kónya (Prešov): On the periphery of the Reformation: The Slovak and Ruthenian Reformed in Upper Hungary in the 17th-19th Century. On one historical stereotype of Calvinism as the “Hungarian faith”
- 16:30 Visit to Select Sites, Group Dinner in the City

Saturday, 10th June 2023

- 9:00 Session IV: Transnational and Transconfessional Memory Cultures
(Chair: Ildikó Horn)
- Angela Ilić (Munich): Remembering the Reformation as Shared Heritage? A Survey of Memory Cultures and Historiographies in Central Europe
- Csilla Gábor (Cluj-Napoca): Interconfessionality and Interculturality in Action
- Zdenko Širka (Prague): Traditions of St Wenceslas and St Sava: Similarities and Differences

11:15 Coffee Break

11:30 Session V: Transcultural / Transconfessional Developments and Encounters in the 17th and 18th Centuries
(Chair: Ildikó Horn)

Boro Bronza (Banja Luka, Bern): Relations between the Protestants and the Serbian Orthodox Church in the Space of Hungary in the First Half of the 18th century

Hanna Mazheika (Warsaw): Ruthenian Students at the University of Ingolstadt and Incentives for Conversion to Catholicism

13:00 Lunch Break

14:00 Session VI: Protestants in the Fields of Culture and Education
(Chair: Tibor Fabiny)

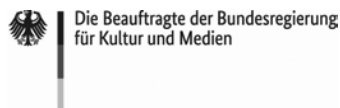

Júlia Demeter (Budapest): Calvinist school theatre in Hungary: Forbidden, tolerated, encouraged?

Vadim Dudkin (Minsk): Transformation of the University Education System in Early Modern Europe

15:30 Conclusion of the Conference

Financed by:

- MTA BTK Lendület Long Reformation in Eastern Europe (1500-1800) Research Group
- Fritz Thyssen Stiftung
- Beauftragte der Bundesregierung für Kultur und Medien
- AKSL Hermannstadt

Looking Beyond the Paradigm: Reformation and Religious Diversity across Borders and Cultures in Central and Southeastern Europe

Budapest, 8th – 10th June 2023

Evangélikus Hittudományi Egyetem
Lutheran Theological University
1141 Budapest, Rózsavölgyi köz 3